Looking Back at May

May 10: VBS School Days Off

VBS is almost done for this school year. The children enjoyed games, crafts, lessons, and helped prepare the children's garden.

May 12: Mother's Day Challenge

Sandi Nicholson and Marilyn Forster again this year asked all the ladies to wear a hat for Mother's Day. For every hat worn Sandi and Marilyn each donated $1.00 to PWRDF. There were a total of 51 ladies who wore hats. There were even people who watched the livestream service who were wearing hats! Sandi and Marilyn are doing a similar challenge for Father's Day June 16, but the men need to wear a tie.

May 14: Childrens Garden

The Childrens Garden started up again this month. We are introducing preschoolers to God's wonderful works. The children will be planting seeds, watering, and learning about each plant.

May 24: Youth Windup

Immanuel's youth group got together with Christ Lutheran and Our Saviors Lutheran to finish up the season with a scavenger hunt at Candy Cane Park, and of course, snacks! There were about 25 youth in attendance, and everyone, including the helpers, had a great time!
