

The Qu'Appelle School for Mission and Ministry

Big Questions of our Faith Series
What about God?

Monday May 31st 2021

7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

On Zoom

Instructor: Rev. Dell Bornowsky

This will be a time of instruction, small group conversation, and large group interaction.

Rev. Dell will address questions including:

Why do we need to worship God? Is God egoistic?

Why is there evil and suffering in the world?

How can a loving God allow people to suffer?

What does it mean to be created 'in the image of God'?
Are we image-bearers or miserable offenders?

Is there a hell? How can a loving God send anyone there?

Is there really a devil? Where did he come from if he exists?

There is no cost for this session. A donation may be made to the Qu'Appelle School

Big Questions of our Faith Series
The Bible

Monday June 28th 2021

7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

On Zoom

Instructor: The Rev. Dr. Dean Pinter

Rev. Dean will address these questions:

Why do we have 66 books in the Bible? Why not more? Why not less?

Are the books we have reliable?

Why should the Bible be “authoritative” for us?

How can I read Scriptures well?

There is no cost for this session. A donation may be made to the Qu'Appelle School.
